

QHSE POLICY

Innospection is a provider of leading edge testing and inspection services.

Good QHSE performance is critical to the success of the Company. Our goals are clear; the prevention of injury and ill health, no damage to the environment and the provision of a quality service to customers.

The Board of Directors is fully committed to:

- The implementation and achievement of this QHSE Policy
- Continual improvement of the effectiveness of the QHSE management system through setting objectives and reviewing performance.
- The prevention of injury and ill health.
- The prevention of pollution
- Compliance with relevant Environmental legislation and other requirements related to our environmental aspects
- Compliance with relevant Occupational Health & Safety legislation and other requirements related to our OH&S hazards.
- Compliance with relevant Quality Management System requirements.
- Providing an independent service with impartiality and integrity.

Everyone working at Innospection has the right to work in a healthy and safe working environment. In turn they also have a responsibility to ensure a safe working environment is achieved and maintained with no detrimental effect to others.

Programs are in place identifying allocated responsibilities to control and monitor business processes in order that we can measure performance against our QHSE objectives and bring about improvements.

The present and future well being of both the company and its employees depends on our services meeting and continuing to meet the requirements of this QHSE Policy and the needs of our customers.

QHSE objectives are achieved through

- Establishing and maintaining an organisational structure for QHSE management
- Implementing and maintaining a documented Integrated Management System compliant with ISO 9001, ISO 14001, OHAS 18000 and ISO 17020.

- Ensuring personnel are competent for the tasks they perform.
- Recognition that all of our employees have a responsibility to perform their duties in line with the requirements of this QHSE Policy and ensuring that they take such responsibility for their work, recognising that there is always room to improve.
- Consulting with our customers to ensure we meet their needs and expectations, and addressing them through continuous improvement of our systems and practices.
- Ensuring that all of our employees understand this policy and their contribution to it.
- Ensuring that all communications are clear and unambiguous.

Performance of the QHSE System is monitored through periodic reviews undertaken at least annually by the Company management. As part of this review the company shall ensure that:

- This Policy remains relevant to organisational goals
- Performance against objectives is measured.
- Targets are set.
- Objectives are in line with the requirements of this policy. The Manager for QHSE has overall responsibility for implementing this policy.
